New Route Taken to Save Miners

By HOLGER JENSEN
Associated Press Writer
HOMINY FALLS, W. Va. (AP) — Two men trapped four days in the dark, flooded passageway of a coal mine crawled a half-mile through 10 inches of water today to reach another 13 known to be alive.

The remaining 10 of the 25 men, trapped when millions of gallons of water poured into the mine through a wall break Monday, are presumed dead. There has been no contact with them. Mine foreman Frank Davis and miner Edward Rudd, isolated 1½ miles from the mine entrance, groped through the murky waters and reached the other group at 10:30 a.m. The group of 13 was cut off by the flood waters one mile from the mine opening.

The director of rescue operations said it was hoped that "we'll have them out late this afternoon."

C. E. Richardson, president of the Maust Coal and Coke Co., said much depended on the operation of the big pumps draining the passageway.

"If the pumps keep working like we hope they will," he said, "we hope to have the 15 out by 6 p.m."

While some crews moved pumps farther into the mine, other workers gouged through the other side of the mountain. They were creating another tunnel as an alternate route to the point where 15 awaited rescue. At 6 a.m. the tunnel was "about halfway through," but another official pinned his hopes on the pumps.

"In view of the delays encountered in the tunnel," said overnight rescue director C. E. Sundstrom, "I still think they will be able to pump the water out and rescue the men through the main shaft before the alternate tunnel is completed."

The tunnel crews ran into hard rock during the pre-dawn hours and it all but halted forward movement.

The ability of the miners to come outside without aid worried officials. They may have to crawl on their knees through whichever escape route is open to them, because the ceiling is only 36 inches high in places.

duction covering the surcharge. For example, if $15 a week is now deducted from your paycheck for federal income taxes, you will pay an additional $1.50 for a total of $16.50.

Q—How long must I pay this extra tax?

A—Until June 30, 1969, unless Congress extends it beyond that point.

Q—Isn't the tax retroactive?

A—Yes, but it won't affect the amount withheld from your paycheck. The surcharge on individual taxes would go into effect as of April 1. You won't begin paying it until June under the tentative schedule, thus missing more than two months of deductions from your paycheck.

Q—Will I be required to pay this later?

A—Yes, but not until you file your income tax return for 1968 by April 15 of next year. When you figure out how much tax you owe the government for 1968 at that time, you will be required to assess the surcharge from the previous April 1.

Rep. John E. Miller of Melbourne said the paintings being displayed were especially in bad taste because many school children tour the Capitol daily at this time of the year.

Miller said a number of the paintings and drawings on display were of "nudes depicted in vulgar and distasteful poses."

The paintings, part of a collection of art pieces by students at state-supported colleges and universities, are on exhibit at the Capitol as part of the Arkansas Festival of the Arts.

However, the one to which Miller expressed his greatest objection — a nude study in chalk, pencil and charcoal by University of Arkansas student Kristian Gilbert — was no longer on display. Capitol guards said it fell Thursday morning and was being kept in a room off the rotunda.

State Sen. Clifton L. Wade of Fayetteville asked that the resolution be sent to a committee for study because "I didn't have a chance to make the rounds and see the pictures and, in the second place, I'm not even a judge of art and didn't even take it in college."

British Vote Is Threat to Wilson

By LAWRENCE MALKIN

Associated Press Writer

LONDON (AP) — Electoral

and financial woes threatened

Prime Minister Harold Wilson's

hold on the ruling Labor party today.

Returns from municipal elections

showed an unprecedented

out of Laborites from town halls from one end of Britain to the other.

The British pound, officially valued at $2.40, dropped to

$2.39055, the lowest point since the outset of the gold crisis.

The plunge followed a sharp attack on Wilson by newspaper tycoon Cecil King, who declared in an editorial in the Daily Mirror and his other principal publications: "We are now threatened with the greatest financial crisis in our history."

A director of the Bank of England, King submitted his resignation from that post to Chancellor of the Exchequer Roy

Jenkins a few hours after the market opened. The resignation was quickly accepted.

King's editorial was headlined: "Enough is Enough."

"Mr. Wilson and his government have lost all credibility;

all authority," he wrote.

Legislator Dislikes Nude Paintings

Arkansas legislator, incensed over the display of some nude

Rep. John E. Miller of Mel-

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

Dear Helen: Last night a young man came to our fine home. We had never met him before. He said he would like to talk to me and my wife about our daughter, whom we've always considered a nice girl.

Well, all I can say, it's a helluva world when a 19-year-old boy comes to you and tells you that your daughter is pregnant, when you don't even know your new son-in-law to be's name— UNACQUAINTED

Dear Un: And all I can say, it's a helluva family life when a daughter hides the boy from her parents until they are darn near grandparents!

At least the young man has honorable intentions. So take it from there! — H

Dear Helen: You said a wife leaves tough decisions on child management to her husband so that he'd feel like the head of the household, and SHE wouldn't get the blame for being the abominable "no" woman.

But how about us fathers? My wife always passes the buck. When she doesn't want the kids to do certain things, she says, "Ask your father," knowing I'll veto them. So I'm the big ogre, and she's the sweet mother who would like to say "yes," but "Your father's the boss."

It comes down to this in our family. When they return from a trip, the children greet their mother with lavish hugs and kisses. I get a distant hand-shake. They call me "Sir," and try to avoid me, but they confide in and extravagantly love my wife.

Wouldn't it be better if mother would say, "I vote 'No' on this proposition, but talk it over with your father."?

I'm nothing but a hatchet man in our family, and I'm sick and tired of being the — BIG "NO"

Dear No: A wife who turns her husband into an all-out hatchet man deserves a husband who passes the axe right back to her. Try saying "Yes" a few times and see how fast she lowers the boom. — H

Dear Helen: We are living at a temporary address, so our mail is sent to the home of my husband's parents. My husband is in the Navy Reserves. His mother is so afraid he is going to get a letter calling him to active duty that she opens all his mail.

This bothers me a great deal. I don't open mail that isn't addressed to me, and I don't think she should either. Should I say something to her in a nice way? — BOTHERED

Dear Bothered: It probably wouldn't help, and it might start a feud. If this really bothers you, why not rent a post office box? — H.

Dear Helen: For ten years my husband was a good, decent man, but only in my fantasy. That's why I closed my ears to nasty rumors and my eyes to facts. It was my imagination that kept him honest and true, shattered, too.

Having pride that just won't quit, I asked him to leave. He says he's a good father, a good provider, I answer, "Yes," but I'll trade my furs, my diamonds, even my comfortable home for a one - room hut if I could once

In Wrestling You Can Win, Still Lose

By MIKE BRYSON

Associated Press Sports Writer
AMES, Iowa (AP) — Perfection is the name of the game in the U.S. Olympic wrestling trials at Iowa State University. It's one of the few forms of competition where you can win — and still lose.

The meet is conducted under international rules, and the only way a gapper can avoid being assessed certain penalty points — called black marks — is to come up with a pin. Anything less, even victory by decision, results in a penalty.

After some 10 hours and more than 180 matches during the first two rounds of the trials Thursday, only 15 men were without a black mark, including a former NCAA champ and two recent AAU winners.

Scoring two pins each were heavyweight Larry Kristoff of Carbondale, Ill., 191.5-pounder Wayne Baughman of Colorado Springs, Colo., and Dick Colorado of New York.

Kristoff, member of the 1964 U.S. Olympic team and heavyweight winner in last month's National AAU meet, took only 2 minutes, 12 seconds to throw Dick Schumacher of Suffern, N.Y., after stopping Roy Worthington of Carbondale in 4:23 earlier in the day.

Baughman, a former NCAA king, made his second pin of the day a 2:21 conquest of Charles Arnold of Evanston, Ill. AAU winner Sofman polished off Dave Grinold of Madison, Wis., in 1:32 after pulling a quick pin in the opening round.

Several other NCAA or AAU champions remained unbeaten, but were assessed penalties after winning either one or both of their matches by decision.

A wrestler loses a half point if he wins a decision by 10 points or more; a full point if he wins any other decision; two points if he draws; three points if he loses by a decision; and four points if he loses by a fall. When he has accumulated six penalty points, he is eliminated.

Dancer Will Not Be in Preakness

By GED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
A couple of pieces could fall into place in the Preakness puzzle with the running of the Withers Saturday at Aqueduct.

Dancer's Image, the disqualified Kentucky Derby winner, possibly will be sidelined for the Preakness, and only Forward Pass, Jig Time, Iron Ruler and Francel's Hat are probable starters from the 14-horse Derby field.

The second jewel of the Triple Crown, set for Pimlico May 18, needs starters. Enter the $50,000-added, one-mile Withers.

Impressive performances in the Withers could send one or more of the probable 10-horse field to the Preakness. An outstanding effort by a colt which has not been nominated for the Preakness also could result in a trip to Pimlico. The Preakness accepts supplementary nominations.

The Preakness nominees expected to go in the Withers are Mrs. H.C. Phipps' What A Pleasure, Mrs. Adele L. Rand's Call Me Prince, Robert J. Kleberg's Out Of The Way, Max Quack's Verbatim, Mildred Quack's Martin's Jig, C.V. Whitney's Bugged and James P. Mills' Salerno.

There are also a $75,000-added and another $50,000-added race on Saturday's schedule.

The higher money race is the 1 1/2 mile Illinois Derby for 3-year-olds. A probable field of 13

Chicago Back on Flag Road

By MIKE RECHT

Associated Press Sports Writer
The Chicago White Sox are back on the road to the pennant race, using a new way — for them — to travel. The Sox are winning with home runs.

Pete Ward, their newly discovered slugger, smacked two solo shots, his seventh and eighth of the season, and powered the Sox to a 4-2 victory over the Oakland A's Thursday night.

But Ward is not alone. Joining him have been Tommy Davis, Luis Aparicio, Tom McCraw and pitcher Gary Peters as Chicago has turned around from its 0-10 start to win eight of its last 13 games.

Peters went 8 2-3 innings, giving up only five hits, for the latest triumph which moved the still last-place Sox only 7 1/2 games behind American League leading Baltimore.

Minnesota broke a third place tie with Oakland by coming from behind for a 4-3 10-inning triumph over California on Rod Carew's double and Cesar Tovar's single.

The Washington Senators snapped a six-game losing streak in the only other AL game, beating Boston 3-1 behind the pitching of Phil Ortega and Dave Baldwin.

In the National League, Los Angeles blanked the Chicago Cubs 6-0 in the afternoon, and at night Philadelphia beat Cincinnati 7-3, Houston whipped San Francisco 5-3 and Atlanta downed Pittsburgh 4-2 in the only games scheduled.

Ward's first belt in the fifth inning tied the game at 2-2 and his second in the seventh off starter Lew Krausse put the White Sox ahead to stay.

Peters left after Rick Monday tripled with two out in the ninth, and Bob Locker got the last out as Chicago's always stingy pitchers continued to take advantage of the hitting windfall.

The victory was only the second against three losses for Peters, who won his last game by hitting a grand slam homer. Three days later, McCraw hit a slam for the normally light-hitting Sox and gave Joe Horlen his first victory.

Before that, it was homers by Ward, Davis and Aparicio that broke the Sox out of their horrible start and put some steam in their pennant hopes.

Carew, last year's Rookie-of-the-Year in the AL, took another step on the sophomore jinx by raising his average to .337 with three hits, scoring after each one.

He singled in the first inning, stole second and scored on Harmon Killebrew's single for a 1-0 Minnesota lead, but the Angels' Tom Satriano wiped that out with a three-run homer off Jim Merritt in the third.

After Ted Uhlaender's bunt single scored Tony Oliva, who had doubled, from second base in the seventh, Carew and Tovar singled in the eighth and Carew scored on Frank Kostro's pinch sacrifice fly for a 3-3 score.

With Ron Perranoski holding off the Angels for two innings for his first AL victory, Carew and Tovar teamed again in the 10th against Jim Weaver.

Ortega helped himself with his bat to his fourth victory, doubling in Washington's third run in the sixth. He scattered seven hits in seven innings before Baldwin came on.

Ed Stroud had singled and stole second before Ortega's hit and the outfielder scored the first Senators' run in the second when he beat out a bunt, stole second, took third on a balk and scored on a wild pitch.

The decisive run came in the fifth when Fred Valentine singled and moved around on Bill Bryan's hit and a ground out.

Rising Stock Star But Never a Winner

DARLINGTON, S.C. (AP) — Cale Yarborough, a rising star in stock car racing but never a winner at Darlington, has earned the right to try to rectify that.

He was fastest among Thursday's seven qualifiers for Saturday's $64,950 Rebel 400-mile race at the Darlington Speedway.

He drove his Mercury at an average speed of 147.470 miles per hour for four laps of the mile and three-eighths track.

Fifteen cars have now been placed in the field of the 36 which will start. Eight more are to qualify in trials today, and the rest in a special 20-mile race late this afternoon.

Win Moves Phils Into 2nd Place

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer
Johnny Callison has thrown away his weights and now his bat is weighing into Philadelphia's push towards the top of the National League.

Callison drove in four runs with a double, triple and home run Thursday night, helping the Phillies beat Cincinnati 7-3. It was the third straight victory over the Reds for the Phillies and the second straight game in which Callison homered.

The victory pulled the Phillies into second place, one game ahead of Cincinnati, Los Angeles and San Francisco and three back of idle St. Louis. The Dodgers dropped Chicago 6-0, Houston downed San Francisco 5-3 and Atlanta topped Pittsburgh 4-2 in the only other National League games scheduled Thursday.

In the American League, Washington trimmed Boston 3-1, the Chicago White Sox tumbled Oakland 4-2 and Minnesota nudged California 4-3 in 10 innings.

Callison spent a week last winter with Gene Berde, the 63-year-old conditioning expert from Wakefield, Mass., who was credited with developing the body-building program that turned Carl Yastrzemski into baseball's top slugger last year.

"It wasn't a muscle-building thing," says Callison of the week he spent under Berde's tutelage. "As a matter of fact, he told me to throw away my weights. He told me all they did is build tired muscles."

So Callison climbed ropes, went through breathing exercises and rested his tired muscles. The result was a revitalized spring in which he felt leaner and stronger than at any time during his career.

He looked strong enough to the Reds. In the first inning of Thursday night's game, he followed a walk to Tony Taylor and Cookie Rojas' single with his three-base hit.

Then, after the Reds had tied the score in their half of the first, Callison unloaded his third home run of the season in the third inning with Taylor aboard.

Rojas climaxed the Phillie attack with a three-run homer in the ninth that wrapped up Larry Jackson's third victory. Dick Farrell finished up for Jackson when the Reds nipped him for a run in the bottom of the ninth.

Jim Wynn and Ron Davis both homered and Dave Glust pitched a six-hitter as Houston defeated the Giants. Davis also drove in another Astro run with a fifth-inning single.

Hal Lanier, a Giant infielder, was tagged with an indefinite suspension and fine by Manager Herman Franks when he reportedly threw his bat and helmet after being lifted for a pinch hitter.

Rookie Ron Reed won his third straight game as Sonny Jackson drove in three runs with a pair of singles and the Braves whipped the Pirates.

Jackson's bases-loaded single in the second got Atlanta off in front and then he singled home another run with two out in the eighth inning. Jim Britton, another rookie, relieved Reed in the ninth and got the final out.

Ricky Colavito smashed his third homer in two days for Los Angeles and Bill Singer's three-hitter shut out the Cubs.

Zolo Versailles and Bob Bailey also connected for the Dodgers.

Scholarship From Racing Is Awarded

NEW YORK (AP) — Dennis Philip McAuliffe Jr., an Arlington, Va., high school student, has won the 1968 Thoroughbred Racing Association-Grantland Rice scholarship, it was announced today.

He was named the most promising sports writer among 88 high school seniors entered in the competition. The award entitles McAuliffe to a $10,000 scholarship to attend Vanderbilt University for four years.

Rice, who died 14 years ago, was a Vanderbilt graduate. He later became one of the nation's leading sports writers.

Some Demands of Negro Athletes Met

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — University of Kansas athletes have gained some results from a one-day boycott of spring football practice and a threat to boycott all athletics in support of demands for a Negro cheerleader, a Negro coach and more Negro professors.

A university spokesman said Thursday night a Negro will be chosen to fill a vacancy on the point men girls' squad; a course in Negro history will be offered next fall, and the university always is looking for qualified Negro faculty members.

The demand for a Negro coach is a matter for future consideration.

John Greene, Negro student and former football player, said he thought the protesting group generally was satisfied with the answers.

All 15 Negro members of the football squad triggered the action by boycotting Thursday's practice session, the 19th of the 20 spring practices allowed by the Big Eight.

The expression "blue-bellied Yankee" originated with Confederate soldiers.

Controversy Over Golf Hole Change

By BEN THOMAS
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Controversy raged today over the redesigned 15th hole at the plush Lakewood Country Club golf course where the $100,000 Greater New Orleans Open moved into its second day.

"I don't think it's a fair hole," said Bob Stanton, the 22-year-old Aussie who fashioned a six-under-par 65 Thursday to take a one-stroke lead after the first round.

"I think it was a better hole to play as it was," said Tom Weiskopf, the handsome Ohio shot-maker who leads this year's money winners with nearly $80,000. Weiskopf, Johnny Pott and South African Gary Player, all had 66s.

Jack Nicklaus, golf's Golden Bear, said of No. 15, now a par 4 hole playing at 470 yards: "It was a wonderful par 5, but a lousy par 4."

"I don't give a damn what they say," commented Jack Weiss, a tournament official. "I think it's a real fine hole now. Just because it's a par 5 for the members doesn't mean it has to be a par 5 for the pros."

The tee was moved up 60 yards on the hole, making it 470 yards and a par 4.

The hole is a most hazardous one to drive because a ball hit to the right or even slightly to the left could land in the lakes on either side of the narrow fairway.

Eight of the 10 eagles made in last year's tourney, when 15 was played at par 5, were made on the hole.

"The official records show that there were more birdies than pars being made, necessitating a redesign of the hole," said Weiss.

"Inasmuch as it was a very long tee, officials decided to play from the very front of the tee at 470 yards, which is, according to the rules of golf, a par 4 hole.

Confusion Follows Slow Decision

By BOB COOPER

Associated Press Sports Writer
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Confusion, discretion, jangling phones and jangling nerves were everywhere today as the slowest decision in Kentucky Derby history plodded toward its finish line.

The end, most probably, will come Monday when the owner, trainer and handlers of Dancer's Image will appear before Churchill Downs stewards in a hearing to determine who drugged the horse, when they did it and why.

Dancer's Image, winner of last Saturday's Derby, was disqualified after stewards at the track announced traces of phenylbutazone were found in a urine specimen taken from the colt after the race.

Made timid by the first disqualification in the 94-year history of America's and the world's most famous horse race, sources hedged at every question. All said they didn't want to say anything that might influence the outcome of the hearing.

Reporters—and in some cases, the general public—kept asking. Where they didn't find discretion, they found confusion. "I'm just plain upset about all this," said Mrs. Gene Carkey, owner of Forward Pass, who finished second in the Derby and was declared the winner after the drug was found in the system of Dancer's Image.

"It upset me in a way—I was elated—when they told me we had won the Derby," Mrs. Carkey said. "Now they tell me maybe we haven't won. Frankly, I'm all mixed up."

The general manager of the firm that found the phenylbutazone wouldn't say anything at all. "I hope you understand, but all these questions will be asked at the hearing and we'll answer them then," he said.

The emotion centered around these points:

—The original announcement by Churchill Downs Tuesday indicated that Dancer's Image had been disqualified and that Forward Pass had been declared the winner of the Derby.

—A statement later by one of the stewards who decide such things said that nothing was official—yet. But asked if Dancer's Image still might be declared the Derby winner, Leo O'Donnell said, "No, I don't think so."

—A second statement from Churchill Downs left no doubt. It said the track where the Derby has been at home for 94 years would recognize Forward Pass, from the Calumet Farm, as its 1968 winner.

Smith Could Lower His World's Mark

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — Tommie Smith runs a special 220-yard dash in competition which could lower his world record as action opens today in the 42nd West Coast Relays.

Action continuing through Saturday night could see several records fall including the mile relay on the second evening when Kansas, with Jim Ryun, vies against Villanova and a group of West Coast quartets.

Smith, who attended San Jose State College, holds the world record in the furlong at 20 seconds flat. He has run a 20.5 already this year and the fast track at Fresno could bring out an even better time as he goes against John Carlos, Jerry Williams and Jim Farmer among others.

Entered for the two-day meet are 2,231 including high schools, junior colleges, universities and clubs. Most of the open competition will be held Saturday night.

Pro Players Innocent of Wrongdoing

By JAMES R. POLK
Associated Press Sports Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Pro football Commissioner Pete Rozelle says four players whose names have entered a federal grand jury gambling probe are innocent of any wrongdoing.

Pittsburgh tackle Fran O'Brien testified Thursday as the grand jury in suburban Alexandria, Va., wound up three days of secret hearings.

Subpoenas were canceled without being served on Washington quarterback Sonny Jurgensen, Redskins guard Vince Promuto and Baltimore defensive end Andy Stynchula.

Redskins' President Edward Bennett Williams, an attorney, said Jurgensen and Promuto have been cooperating willingly in the investigation. He said the two players were questioned by federal officials several weeks ago.

The federal grand jury decided to take a five-week recess and resume the investigation June 12.

The probe is aimed at alleged illegal use of interstate facilities to conduct and promote gambling in the Washington area. Court sources have said witnesses have been called to give information and not as suspects. In New York, Rozelle said, "when we were informed of the situation, we conducted an investigation and are satisfied that the players are not guilty of any wrongdoing."

Hopped-up Cars Are Doing Well

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — The accent has been on the turbine-powered cars, but the pepped-up Offenhauser and Ford cars have demonstrated plenty of weight for this year's Indianapolis 500-mile race.

The turbocharged Offy of Bobby Unser has won three straight races on the U.S. Auto Club circuit for Indianapolis-type cars.

The turbocharged Ford, minus many of its earlier problems, made its season's debut at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway Thursday.

Jim Malloy of Denver, Colo., got his turbo Ford up to 161.5 miles an hour.

"I figured they'd solve the problems they'd been having with this thing," he said. "But I never thought they'd come up with anything like this. There really aren't any problems to speak of. I think we can have the car ready to go full out in a couple of days."

Furniture Care Training

Johnson Signs With Falcons

ATLANTA (AP) — Quarterback Randy Johnson signed a long-term contract with the Atlanta Falcons of the National Football League Thursday.

Extension Homemakers Home Management leaders received training in care of furniture from Patsy Keller, Extension Home Furnishings Specialist. Mrs. Verdo Hollis serves as County Extension Homemakers Home Management Leader. This is one of the lessons being studied this year by the Extension Homemakers and depicts program theme for year, "Learning in Action".

Extension Homemakers represent 19 E.H. groups in Hempstead County and receive training regularly as organized by Extension Home Economists considering needs and interests of homemakers.

Learners become teachers in sharing new knowledge and skills with friends and neighbors.

The local leader system is an important feature of Extension Homemakers work. It greatly extends the efforts of the Home Economists and at the same time helps to develop leadership ability and self-confidence in the leaders. Since there are many training schools for leaders and the homemakers assume different leadership roles each year, this method of carrying on Extension work has become an important means of developing strong community leadership.

Extension Homemakers Week, May 5-11, provides an opportunity for recognition of volunteer leaders whose services contribute to the development of better homes in better communities.

After your digestive tract has been receiving food for 45 years or more, some of the weaker spots in your colon may form outpouchings or diverticula. There may be dozens of these scattered throughout the length of your colon—a condition called diverticulosis which in its early stages produces no symptoms and requires no treatment. If, however, undue pressure builds up within these diverticula there may be vague pains in your abdomen.

Later, if the partially digested food in these little sacs stagnates, irritating products of putrefaction form. This will cause the lining of the sacs to become inflamed. When this occurs the condition is called diverticulitis. This situation is similar to appendicitis except

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Early Diverticulosis Produces No Symptoms

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Although perforation of an inflamed diverticulum is rare, when it does occur it becomes a surgical emergency. In any case, the inflammation within one or more of the sacs may spread to the lining of the rest of the colon and produce colitis. Blood in the stools in the absence of any hemorrhoids is always a cause for alarm and should lead your doctor to determine whether the cause is diverticulitis or cancer.

Anyone in whom diverticulosis or diverticulitis is found, by direct viewing through a sigmoidoscope or by X-ray studies following a barium enema, should be under the care of a physician. All cathartics must be avoided because they increase the pressure in the colon and thus favor the rupture of a diverticulum. High colonic enemas must be avoided for the same reason. Surgical removal of the diverticula is out of the question because there are so many of them.

Formerly a low-residue diet (one containing no vegetable or fruit) was recommended; but this was found to aggravate rather than alleviate the condition. A diet that includes liberal amounts of cooked vegetables and fruit and an ample fluid intake is now advised. Foods to be avoided include blackberries, raspberries, strawberries, figs and tomatoes, because of the tendency of the small seeds to lodge in the diverticula; wheat and oat products that contain visible bran particles; such gas-formers as beans, potatoes, peas, corn, cabbage, cauliflower and Brussels sprouts; and carbonated drinks. Constipation is avoided by using an eight-ounce warm water enema if needed.

A Closer Walk With God Will Lead You Right Straight to Church

about My MOTHER

Most all other things come by twos, threes, or even by dozens. See the roses, the stars, the sunsets. Ah, there's brothers and sisters, too, and uncles and aunts and cousins a-plenty. But in all the whole big world there's just one mother. There's much more about my mother and good it all must be. In fact she's as good as goodness is, and that's enough for me. Her words are kind, her faith is strong, and her hope as high as the highest tree. You can see from here that she is a dear, — she means everything to me. Not one single emotion comes nearer the divine than my mother's love for me. She is the soaring cloud of radiant rapture that lifts me to new attempts and the strength I need to see me through. I'm taking my mother to church this Mother's Day -- what about you???

You in The Church
The Church in You
— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

Discusses Driving Safety

More Grants to Arkansas

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Dr. Robert A. Leflar, who served as chairman of the Arkansas Constitutional Revision Study Commission last year, will retire from the University of Arkansas faculty in June.

Leflar, a former dean of the Arkansas Law School and currently a professor of law at the university, served an interim appointment on the Arkansas Supreme Court in 1949-50.

Mrs. Ernest Ridgill, County Extension Homemaker Safety Leader, discusses driver examination program with Harvey Fullerton, State Trooper. The State Trooper administers the driving examinations in Hempstead County each Tuesday at 9:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. Drivers are required to pass a written and road test before a license is issued. A drivers manual is available for study in preparation for test and develops self confidence.

Mrs. Ridgill's son, State Trooper Kenneth Ridgill, lives in Magnolia and administers the driver's test in Magnolia and adjacent areas.

Mrs. Ridgill says the Extension Homemakers recognize the need for creating increased safety awareness, improving attitudes and developing habits and skills for safer living. The homemakers have plans to assist in promoting a defensive driving educational program this fall.

HD Clubs Have Far-reaching Influence

Extension Homemaker Clubs have far-reaching influence in extending current homemaking education to homemakers in numerous communities throughout the county.

During E. H. Week, May 5-11, recognition is deserved of homemakers serving as president of the E. H. organizational groups. Extension Homemaker Presidents are: Mrs. Woodrow Baker, Mrs. Vernie Coyne, Mrs.

Mrs. Cecil Smith, County Extension Homemaker Home Grounds Leader, shows her flowers to Mrs. Ernest Ridgill.

Extension Homemakers recognize the value of preparing home grounds for maximum beauty and use. Through this adult education program the members have continuous contact with the latest research and recommendations in landscaping and home grounds. Beautification of homes and community is encouraged.

Humphrey Is Getting Aid in North

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey is reported garnering delegate strength in at least three of five big Northern states that could give him five diamond tricks hold the key to his quest for the Democratic presidential nomination.

The reports come from sources not committed to Humphrey as well as from his campaign organization.

Humphrey is making inroads in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Michigan, the sources say. But his status with the hefty Illinois and New Jersey delegations is tied closely to the as yet obscure preferences of Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago and New Jersey Gov. Richard J. Hughes. Both were backing President Johnson for re-election before he bowed out.

These five states will have 541 votes at the Democratic National Convention, where 1,312 votes will be needed for the nomination.

Humphrey backers are counting on most of the 762 Southern and Border State delegates. They claim he already has 1,100 delegates, many of them not yet chosen.

Many delegates in the five big Northern states may stay nominally uncommitted until after the June 4 California primary.

Meanwhile, a string of primary victories by Sen. Robert F. Kennedy could win him some of these votes.

There are a number of ways to bid the North-South cards but, as all roads lead to Rome, all lines of bidding are likely to lead to the same three no-trump contract that South reached.

Against any lead but Hearts South will have plenty of time to go about the business of setting up nine tricks, but the heart lead is just about automatic whether North or South is declarer.

South has to win the first heart. If he ducks, both his ace and king will fall together on the second heart lead and he will have to scramble for his nine tricks because this second heart lead has set up three tricks in the suit for the defense.

It is hopeless to go after spades. South can't set up more than three tricks in the suit. He can set up three extra diamond tricks to give him a total of eight tricks, but that will leave him one short.

He must go after clubs and if that suit breaks 3-3 he can add five club tricks to his one spade, two hearts and two diamonds, a total of 10. As you can see, clubs aren't going to break evenly and South will have to give up two tricks in order to bring home the rest of the suit.

Furthermore a suit will divide 3-3 less than 40 per cent of the time. However, South has a better play at his disposal. He wins the heart lead in dummy and leads a club toward his hand. If East rises with the ace, South's worries are over. If East ducks as he should, South has one club trick in. He should abandon that suit, lead a diamond and duck in dummy. This will give him five diamond tricks and his contract. Since a suit Democratic presidential nomination will break 3-2 more than 60 per cent of the time, it is the correct play once South has brought home a club.

Bedspreads of Antique Satin

Man Hit and Killed by Boom

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — John E. Grant, 53, of Dallas, Tex., an employee of Metallic Building Co., was killed Thursday when he was struck by a boom on a crane while delivering some construction materials.

Two homemakers observe bedspread with pride:

Mrs. Alice Hendrix and Mrs. Eddie Waldon, members of the Union Extension Homemakers Club of Fulton, constructed bedspreads from antique satin remnants. This material was purchased in various lengths and put together with cording.

The spreads made by Mrs. Hendrix and Mrs. Waldon cost approximately six dollars as compared to twenty to thirty dollars if purchased ready-made.

This is the results of one of the educational opportunities through Extension Homemakers work.

International Chairman

French Smile But Students Are Rioting

PARIS (AP) — The old Majestic Hotel is all spruced up for the Vietnam peace talks, radiating the anticipation of change that is the mood of Paris this spring.

Flowers and plants went into the gray stone building by the truckload Thursday. Delicate pastel tapestries went up on the walls. Ushers smiled, and even the policemen laughed when confronted by a crowd of foreign newsmen anxious to see the conference room.

France is following peace talk developments with pride, but it is student rioting, not Vietnam, which is mainly preoccupying the French this spring.

The riots got far worse than expected, and the government is upset that they have come at a time when Paris is hopefully becoming "the capital of peace."

Paris is enjoying one of the earliest springs in memory. The chestnut trees are in rich leaf and set off white and pink candle-like blossoms.

The 32 by 39 foot conference room, known as committee meeting room No. 5, is used practically every day for some kind of international conference. Its capacity is 56 persons, says the descriptive pamphlet. For the peace talks, it is set up with about 40 chairs.

The rectangular table, partly covered with light green artificial leather, will separate the two sides by about 10 feet. Nine steel tube and artificial leather armchairs were pulled up on each side, with 12 more against the walls. Each position has earphones for the simultaneous interpreters, who work behind wood panel and windowed booths against the wall opposite the tapestry.

The room looks directly onto street level of narrow Rue La Perouse, which will probably be closed during the talks. The three tall double windows are protected on the outside by ornamental iron grillwork.

Mrs. Walter White, County Extension Homemakers International Chairman, and Mrs. Alphonsa Denham, Assistant Extension Home Economist, discuss other countries and educational programs studied by homemakers to encourage better understanding, good will and friendship between women of this country and women of other countries.

Extension homemakers participate in a program that recognizes the family as the center of our society with increasing responsibilities.

Clothing Leaders

— Delores Mc Bride photos with Star Camera

Mrs. Roscoe Bowden and Mrs. R. C. Snelgrove, County Extension Homemaker Clothing Leaders, use sewing equipment to construct clothing with professional look. These homemakers have completed a sewing construction training series learning energy-saving techniques as recommended by the Extension Service.

Extension Homemakers are learning and keeping up-to-date through participating in this voluntary educational program. They recognize that clothing affects the health and efficiency of all family members and has social and psychological meanings important to individual development.

Arkansan Keeps Vow to Wallace

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Mrs. C. E. Sanders of Arkadelphia, Ark., was in Montgomery Thursday to keep a vow she made 25 years ago to George Wallace.

At that time, when Wallace was an Army Air Corps trainee, Mrs. Sanders said he told her to help take care of his wife, Lurleen.

Mrs. Sanders awoke early Thursday to check preparations at the cemetery for the burial of Gov. Lurleen Wallace, who died in her sleep Tuesday morning after a two-year battle with cancer.

Mrs. Sanders recalled the days a quarter-century earlier when the Wallaces spent their honeymoon at a house she ran as a volunteer worker for servicemen.

"I had their official wedding dinner for them," she recalled. "That first wedding dinner was a large plate of fried chicken. And that's what we have every time I would eat with them."

"Their 25th wedding anniversary would have been this month," said Mrs. Sanders, who greeted Wallace when he took his presidential campaign to Little Rock last month.

Rejects Hike on Home Insurance

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Insurance Commissioner Allan W. Horne said Thursday he had rejected a request for a rate increase on five types of homeowners insurance.

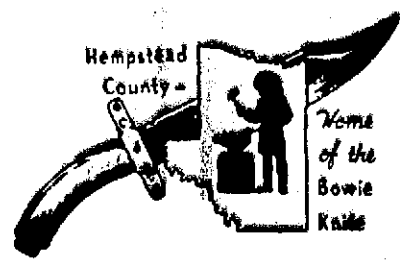

Horne said the request called for hikes as high as 25 per cent.

Horne said rising costs and an unanticipated number of claims were the reasons given for the rate increase request. He said he refused the request because the petitioners supporting data was out of date, among other things.

The rate increases were asked by the Multi-Line Insurance Rating Bureau, the Arkansas Inspection and Rating Bureau, the Inland Marine Insurance Bureau and the Insurance Rating Board.

Tentative Tax Package to Council

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller sent a tentative prison finance package to the Arkansas Legislative Council Thursday, one that contained a proposed 20 per cent excise tax on cigars.

The package also include a proposal real estate transfer tax (a similar bill was defeated in February), an unclaimed property act and application of the sales tax on purchases by banks and savings and loan associations.

The governor's financial advisers estimate that the measures would produce $1.87 million in revenues by July 1, 1969, which would almost equal the amount being requested by the state Board of Correction.

Several legislators proposed that an excise tax be imposed on all tobacco products, including chewing, pipe and cigarette tobaccos and snuff.

Rep. Chadd Durrett of El Dorado, a cigar smoker, recommended a tax of one cent on each cigar rather than percentage tax on the wholesale price. Durrett said the percentage tax would discourage the sale of "good cigars."

Sen. Glen Hendrix of Prescott suggested a one cent increase in the cigarette tax and an excise tax on all other tobacco products and the dropping of the other tax proposals in the prison package.

On another matter, the council was asked to give higher education the same amount of money proposed for the public schools.

W. E. Darby, chairman of the Commission on Coordination of Higher Educational Finance, said the commission recognized the needs of the public schools, but "we feel that higher education is just as essential to the welfare of the state."

The state Administration Department has recommended that $2 million be taken from the revolving fund in the second year of the biennium to be given to the public schools.

This would allow the public schools to get all of Allotment A and 50 per cent of Allotment B under the Revenue Stabilization Act. The proposal would also allow colleges and universities to collect 100 per cent of Allotment A and Darby said by receiving $2 million, it would assure higher education of 50 per cent of Allotment B.

Some Tips That Often Decide Whether You Are a Success or Not

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

Timing is very important in life and often is the factor that decides between success and failure. Only a fool asks his boss for a merit raise right after seeing him get his face splashed while trying to drink from a balky office water cooler.

Second Push Against Saigon Crushed, Say Intelligence Sources

By JOHN T. WHEELER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. and South Vietnamese troops have virtually crushed the Viet Cong's "second wave" offensive against Saigon, intelligence sources said today.

A police source said from 80 to 90 per cent of the enemy military force fighting inside the city has been killed, captured or scattered.

He said the force which pushed past the city's outer fringes never totaled more than about 150 fighting men at any one time. A U.S. military source said there may have been somewhat more than 200 at the peak observers today discounted rumors that Soviet troops are about to invade Czechoslovakia or are massing on its border to put pressure on the new liberal regime in Prague.

Invasion by Russia Discounted

WARSAW (AP) — Western

The rumors stemmed from reported movements of Soviet troops in Poland as close as 18 miles to the frontier with Czechoslovakia shortly after an emergency summit conference in Moscow of hard-line East European Communist leaders. They evidently discussed Czechoslovakia.

Diplomatic sources in Moscow conceded that Soviet-Czechoslovak relations have been shaken by Prague's sweeping liberalization, including its unshackling of the press. But these sources said the Soviets showed no sign of being disturbed enough to stage a rerun of the bloody quashing of the 1956 Hungarian rebellion.

Seasoned observers in Vienna felt likewise and linked the reported troop movements to previously announced plans for maneuvers of the Warsaw Pact forces that are scheduled to extend into Czechoslovakia.

Western military attaches were prevented from leaving Warsaw to check on the Soviet troop movements, but one witness was reported to have seen Russian troops near the town of Andrychov, 18 miles from the Czech border.

In the wake of their own conference in Moscow early this week, leaders of the new Prague regime continued to give public assurance of their loyalty to communism despite their liberal trend.

Liberalization in Czechoslovakia has aroused the bitterest opposition among Polish and East German leaders, who fear it will prove an inspiration to restive Poles and East Germans and because Prague is showing signs of establishing relations with West Germany.

To Ignore Ruling on Mixed Drinks

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Alcoholic Beverage Control Board Thursday ignored an attorney general's opinion given five hours earlier and licensed 28 private clubs to serve mixed drinks.

Walter L. Hinton Jr. of Little Rock, the board chairman, said the three-member board felt it was "on safe legal grounds."

Earlier in the day the board had delayed action on the Class six permits, awaiting an opinion from Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell.

Purcell said the new ABC regulations for a Class six permit "contravene statutory prohibitions and are, therefore, invalid."

The board said it was aware of the opinion but that "after carefully considering our responsibilities" and two earlier opinions from Purcell, it chose to proceed to issue the Class six permits. Regulations for the permits were adopted by the ABC April 15.

The board approved applications of 28 private clubs and failed to approve applications from nine others. Fifteen of the clubs receiving permits, which became effective immediately, were in Little Rock, including the plush Top of the Rock Club, of which Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller is a member.

Purcell declined to comment on the board's defiance of his opinion Thursday night. He indicated, however, that he may have a statement on the matter

U.S., Vietnam Peace Talks Scheduled to Start in Paris Today

AP News Digest

PARIS (AP) — United States and North Vietnamese delegations made the first contact of their Paris conference today amid signs they may face a wrangle over arrangement details at the very outset.

U.S. officials had said they hoped to begin substantial talks today and the arrangement for a session on planning details instead was reported to be a disappointment to them.

A U.S. spokesman was asked whether the North Vietnamese had requested this approach and whether they were stalling. "I don't want to characterize the meeting," he replied. "The meeting was suggested and we accepted it."

About the same time the American announcement was being made of a 3 p.m. (10 a.m. EDT) meeting time the North Vietnamese chief delegate Xuan Thuy said the meeting would be at 3:30 p.m.

The discrepancy in time was not immediately explained. The procedural questions for discussion at this first session could include the matter of an agenda for the later opening talks between Thuy and the U.S. top negotiator, Ambassador W. Averell Harriman.

An argument over the agenda could delay substantial talks indefinitely, but U.S. officials said they had no word that the situation would develop in that manner.

William Jordan, an assistant to Harriman, told newsmen U.S. representatives at the mid-afternoon session would be Ambassador Cyrus R. Vance and Philip Habib, a State Department expert on Vietnam.

The session was set for the International Conference Center, the old Majestic Hotel, where the main talks are to be held.

At the top of the agenda was the North Vietnamese demand that the United States unconditionally halt its bombing of North Vietnam, extending the curtailment President Johnson ordered March 31 to the whole country.

Until this is done, Hanoi has said, the political issues at the heart of the war cannot be discussed.

The United States has limited its bombing to the lower sector of North Vietnam, requiring that Hanoi demonstrate reciprocal "restraint" in return for a halt of all U.S. aerial attacks in the North.

If a formula for a bombing halt can be reached, it is expected that the negotiators will then take up the sticky political questions.

Battle of Saigon Has Slowed Down

Associated Press
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. infantrymen clashed repeatedly today along the southern fringes of Saigon with bands of snipers and rocket-firing Viet Cong, but generally the Vietnam war slowed down as American and North Vietnamese peace negotiators prepared to meet in Paris.

The Americans from the 9th Division appeared to be driving the enemy away from South Vietnam's capital on the sixth day of the Viet Cong's "peace tik" offensive. Intelligence sources said U.S. and South Vietnamese forces had virtually crushed, at least for the time being, the waves of attacks on Saigon that began last Sunday.

They said one reason for the enemy setback was that U.S. troops sweeping the countryside around Saigon intercepted much of the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese force—they reached the capital.

Two major developments were reported in the air war against North Vietnam. U.S. Navy pilots said they blew up the biggest oil depot in the southern half of North Vietnam. And the U.S. Command confirmed a report earlier this week from Pentagon sources in Washington that Communist MIG fighters are operating in the North Vietnamese panhandle south of the 20th parallel for the first time in the war.

The command said a MIG21 shot down an American F4 Phantom Tuesday about 145 miles north of the demilitarized zone.

The U.S. Command reported nearly 3,000 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese killed in the last five days of fighting around Saigon. One U.S. source said elements of 19 enemy battalions pressing toward the city had been repulsed during the past week with heavy losses.

Most of the capital was calm today, with life back to normal. Reports from the field and U.S. communiques indicated the pattern was much the same up and down the country, except for harassing enemy shelling.

But there still was heavy enemy fire from both sides of the Kien Doi Canal which forms the southern boundary of Saigon. An American helicopter gunship making a rocket pass south of the "Y" Bridge across the canal crashed and burned, possibly brought down by enemy fire.

Thousands of Army troops in the Washington area reportedly go on alert Saturday when the vanguard of the Poor People's Campaign begins arriving.
